BELIEVES ORGANIZED CAMPAIGN OF MISREPRESENTATION IS ON

GOVERNOR SULZER

Resolution In New York Legislature Seeks His Impeachment.

TIE CAN ON THE HANDLE HE ASSUMED

COLONEL MULHALL LOSES HIS TITLE

Ohio Attorney General Challenges Claim of Former Lobbyist.

Washington, Aug. 12.—Colonel Martin M. Mulhall appeared for examination before the Garrett house committee for the first time. He was submissive for a short while, but vastly more reticent than when he testified before the senate committee.

Incidentally "Colonel" Mulhall lost his title.

It was snatched from him by Representative Willis of Ohio, who produced a letter from the adjutant general of the state of Ohio, in which that officer stated that no such person as Michael Martin Mulhall ever had been a member of the staff of any governor of Ohio. Mulhall testified before the senate committee that he was appointed by Governor McKinley of Ohio a member of his staff in 1893 and served until 1895.

The committee reviewed the colonel's career as a member of the field staff of the National Association of Manufacturers from the date of his first secret employment by Secretary Marshall Cushing in 1903 down to the present time. The review was cursory and dealt only with the general scope of his work. It was in this review that Mulhall proved most recalcitrant. He refused to mention names or to approximate dates. He kept demanding that the examination be conducted from the letters as it had been in the senate committee.

John H. Crim of New York, an attorney engaged by the New York World on Mulhall's demand, entered his appearance in Mulhall's behalf.

WAS IT NERVY?

Altoona, Pa., Aug. 12.—Placing two large sticks of dynamite in his vest pocket, with a lighted fuse attached, Henry Boldt, 55, married, lay down to await results. In a moment there was a terrific explosion and Boldt's stomach was blown out, his left arm torn off, his legs terribly mutilated and his features rendered unrecognizable. His death was instantaneous. Boldt had been ill.

WILSON PLEASED AT THE OUTLOOK

Improvement Reported In the Mexican Situation.

ALL AWAIT WORD FROM LIND

President Said to Attach No Importance to the Alleged Organized Effort to Plunge This Country Into War—Another Cruiser Ordered to Mexican Waters to Remove American Refugees—Late Developments.

Washington, Aug. 12.—The statement was authorized by high authority that President Wilson believes an organized campaign of misrepresentation is being waged to plunge this country into a war with Mexico. The president, however, does not attach much importance to these alleged efforts to thwart his plans for a peaceful settlement of the controversy. Aside from this development and the dispatching of another cruiser to Mexican waters, the Washington government is marking time on the Mexican situation.

The Nashville was the cruiser ordered to Mexican waters. She is to assist in the work of removing American refugees. Like the cruiser Tacoma, the Nashville is to be used at ports where harbor facilities are not sufficient to permit of the entrance of the battleships now in Mexican waters.

Emphatic statements were made in official circles of the president's determination to wait upon Governor Lind's report of Mexican conditions before deciding upon any definite course of action for this government. The president intends, however, that eventually suggestions shall be made by the United States to Provisional President Huerta looking toward the establishment of peace in Mexico.

President Wilson has not given consideration to a suggestion that the United States recognize the followers of Carranza as belligerents. He was manifestly pleased at the turn developments have taken in the last few days and made no secret of his optimism at the general outlook. He apparently considers that dangerous potentialities have been removed by his success in presenting the situation to the members of the senate committee on foreign affairs and thus making sure, that for a time at least, no ill-considered speeches on Mexico will be delivered in the senate.

The declaration of the president's belief that an organized effort is being made to plunge this nation into war aroused intense interest here. There is reason to believe that Mr. Wilson before long may deem it necessary to use names and to fix the responsibility where he thinks it belongs. The president has in mind particularly certain newspapers which have published lurid and apparently exaggerated accounts of developments in the Mexican situation.

Industrial Workers Demanding Right to Speak in the Streets.

Minneapolis, Minn., Aug. 12.—Seventy-five members of the Industrial Workers of the World have left Minneapolis for Minot, N. D., to help defend members engaged in warfare with the authorities there, according to Charles E. Berg, in charge of the headquarters of the Industrial Workers here. More will leave soon, he says. "We'll force our rights to hold street meetings at Minot if it takes 1,000 men," declared Berg. "We'll fill their jails so full that they can't make any more arrests." The I. W. W. are attempting to organize the farm laborers in the northwest. Eighty members of the Industrial Workers are in jail at Minot.

UNEXPECTED OPPOSITION HALTS PLAN

SEEK THE SCALP OF GOV. SULZER

Impeachment Resolution Before the New York Legislature.

PROBERS' REPORT ACCEPTED

Committee Holds That the Questions Involved Call For an Answer From New York's Executive, Who Is Accused of Having Used Obstructive Tactics—Some of the Charges as Outlined in the Report.

Albany, N. Y., Aug. 12.—Following the reading and acceptance by the general assembly of the Frawley legislative committee's report, which lodges serious charges against Governor William Sulzer, Assemblyman A. J. Levy of New York city, majority leader, offered a resolution for the impeachment of Sulzer "for wilful and corrupt conduct in office and for high crimes and misdemeanors."

The plan was to rush the resolution for impeachment through, but extraordinary opposition developed.

Protesting that the governor must not be railroaded, no matter what he had done, that the report of the Frawley committee was stamped with insincerity and prejudice, and that there was grave doubt of the right to impeach the governor at an extraordinary session unless called for that express purpose, Republicans, Progressives and Independent Democrats pleaded the cause of the governor until the banging of Speaker Smith's gavel was lost in the cheers of the visitors who crammed the assembly chamber.

The program is to adopt the Levy resolution for impeachment late this afternoon. A committee of nine, with Mr. Levy as chairman, will then be appointed to draw up articles of impeachment, to be presented to the senate on Thursday.

From the moment impeachment is voted in the assembly, Governor Sulzer will be called to perform the duties of his office. Lieutenant Governor Glynn will be acting governor, with full powers.

Frawley Committee's Report.

The assembly voted to receive the Frawley report by a vote of 65 to 35, after beating 70 to 31. Senator Hinman's resolution that it be referred to a committee.

The report, shorter than was expected, made no direct recommendation as to Governor Sulzer. It came nearest to that when it said:

"The questions here involved are vital to clean government. They are above party or partisanship. They call for an answer from Governor Sulzer, because both his obstructive tactics and his silence warrants the conclusion that the charges can neither be answered or explained."

Among the accusations are: "That the governor tried to keep testimony from the ears of the committee."

"That he swore to a campaign fund of $5,460 from 68 contributors, whereas the money really deposited by Louis A. Sarecky for the governor with the Mutual Alliance Trust company was $12,465.93 and the number of contributors 94."

"That he used campaign funds for the purpose of buying securities or

BRAVE FIREMEN FLED DEATH AS TIDAL WAVE OF FIRE AND SMOKE SWEEPED DOWN UPON THEM

This is a remarkable fire picture. It shows most graphically how firemen in Philadelphia were forced to flee for their lives before an immense wall of fire and smoke which rolled toward them in a street made dangerous by tangled hose. One fire laddie slipped from the ladder on the right as he hurried to escape and was nearly killed. The man shown in the circle was so badly injured that his death was at first expected. This tidal wave of flame was one of the lurid features of the destruction of the Union Oil Company's plant occupying a whole block in Philadelphia. Nearly thirty firemen were injured during this big fire.

ARCHBISHOP MAKES SPEECH

Milwaukee, Aug. 12.—Archbishop Ireland, before 200 dignitaries and 8,000 laymen of the Catholic church, concluded the second day's session of the twelfth annual convention of the American Federation of Catholic Societies, in session here, with an address on "Americanism and Catholicism," in which he deplored secularism in schools, spoke of the patriotism of the American Catholics and condemned those who accused Catholics of lack of patriotism. The archbishop declared that "the evil today in America is the decay of religion and, in necessary sequence, the decay of morals."

tomorrow afternoon. The DMI will then be taken up for amendment under what is known as the five-minute rule.

THE CLOSEST SCRUTINY TO BE GIVEN ALL

HANDWRITING EXPERT ENGAGED BY STATE

Inquiry Started Into Genuineness of Referendum Petitions.

Columbus, O., Aug. 12.—Inquiry into the genuineness of referendum petitions which have been filed by the Equity association of Cleveland on the Kilpatrick and Warnes laws will be commenced before Secretary of State Graves tomorrow, according to a statement of Attorney General Hogan, who will represent the state. The Equity association has been notified to be ready at that time with counsel if it so desires.

That the inquiry will resolve itself chiefly into a contest between handwriting experts as to the genuineness of signatures, was made evident by the state's engaging the services of William G. Pengelly, a local handwriting expert. Mr. Pengelly today began to assort and group signatures which appear to have been signed by the same person. The signatures have been pronounced genuine by a Cleveland handwriting expert.

Attorney General Hogan for the first time peered behind the covers on the Warnes law petition. One of the first names to meet his eye was that of a Jackson banker, an intimate friend. The signature, he says, undoubtedly is a forgery.

First Assistant Attorney General McGhee and Special Counsel Dempsey left for Cincinnati, to take charge of prosecutions which are contemplated being started there immediately. Almost a score of warrants for the arrest of petition peddlers were issued there last week. It is expected that arrests will follow their arrival.

TRAIN HITS AUTO

Buffalo, Aug. 12.—Harold S. Warner, a real estate man, and Charles Calkins, his father-in-law, were killed when their automobile was struck by a train. They were coming to the city from Mr. Calkins' summer home when the accident occurred.

BOND ISSUE FOR NEW FIRE TRUCK COSTING $10,000

Modern Fire Fighter Will Soon Be Placed in Local Engine House For Better Fire Protection.

NORTH STREET PAVING ORDINANCE AGAIN READ

Circle Avenue Improvement Up Once
More—Water Company Sends Word
That Work on the Improvements
Will Soon Commence—Other Matters Receive Attention at Special Meeting of the City Council Last Night.

Considerable business of importance was transacted at the special session of the city council Monday
night, the most important part being the passing of an ordinance to issue $10,000 in bonds for the purpose of purchasing a new motor fire
engine and other modern fire fighting equipment. The ordinance went through with only one dissenting
vote, Durant voting against it and making a short speech in which he stated that while he favored better
fire protection he thought the best plan would be to let the citizens of Washington determine by vote
whether the bond issue should be made for the motor fire engine.

Other members favored proceeding
with the matter as started and the ordinance was passed accordingly.
This action insures the early purchase of a modern fire fighter equal to that of any Ohio City, and which will insure greater protection from fire
dangers.

Resolutions to transfer $115 from the general fund to meet a note was passed without a dissenting vote.

Owing to the expense of moving certain hydrants being too heavy, the proposal to change the hydrants was allowed to pass without further action.

Veall stated that the Water company had informed him that work
on the improvements demanded by the city would start within a short time. No further action was taken on the proposal to hold up payment
until the improvements were underway.

Mayor Smith's report for the month of July showed that he had collected some $15 in licenses.

The Circle Avenue improvement
was next taken up. Service Director Mark stated that the work had been held up because the notices had not been served properly, and that if he had secured bids and let the contract
the action would not have been legal.
Clerk Flynn then stated that he had served the notices on the 14th
of July, the "same day notices were received." Further action on the Circle Avenue improvement will probably take place soon. Legislation on Circle Avenue improvement has been under way or some sixteen months.

The ordinance for paving North
street from the old corporation line
to East street was then taken up and
placed upon its second reading.
Sheets voting against it.

Members Veall, Sheets and Chapman were appointed to locate a new light on Western avenue, where it is claimed there is urgent need of a street light.

The assessing ordinance on North
North street for the improvements
now under way was passed.

An ordinance for a 15-inch sewer
on South Main street passed.

The Budget ordinance, fixing the amount necessary for municipal purposes for the year 1914 was also passed, and remains to be passed on by the Budget Commission.

Veall then urged the improvement
of South Main street by the application of crushed stone. No action was taken on the matter.

Council then adjourned to meet
Monday night of next week.

MOSQUITOES BY THE MILLIONS

Poisonous Insects Swoop Down Upon
The City Yesterday Evening And Torture Citizens Throughout The Night—Probably Driven From The
Stagnant Creek—How to Prevent
Troublesome Pests From Plying
Their Sharp Bills.

With the rain of Monday evening
a cloud of very large and active mosquitoes swept down upon the city
from some unknown source, and tortured humanity with their poisonous
bites throughout the night, driving
people from their verandas and following them into the house for one more great big juicy bite.

Many persons were forced to fight
the troublesome insects, as screens
apparently had little or no effect upon them, and the result was more than one pair of sleepy eyes Tuesday morning, and more than one swollen face, where the poisonous insects had been at work.

It is believed that the mosquitoes
came from the creek, which had become stagnated and afforded an ideal breeding place for the insects, and that when the water raised in the creek it drove them from their homes
and they spread out over the city
by the millions.

As it is known that mosquitoes
carry typhoid fever germs and as everyone is anxious to prevent them
from sinking their poisonous "bills"
into their faces or arms, there is a general demand for a method that will beat wet towels swung about in the air.

Bulletin 253 issued by the Ohio
Experiment Station, gives the best method of successfully combating
the pests and it is by burning pyrethrum, which is also known as Persian and Dalmation Insect Powder.
This material is a powder ground
from the heads of the genus Pyrethrum.

One of the best ways to use the powder is to first moisten it, then mould it into small cones about as large as a chocolate drop, then dry in the oven. Fire these cones at the apex and they will smoulder slowly, stupefying the mosquitoes. Four or five of these cones will prevent the mosquitoes from causing further annoyance.

Breeding places should be given
a coat of kerosene, one ounce to each fifteen square feet of surface.

A few drops of spirits of camphor or pennyroyal will also assist in keeping the mosquitoes away at
night.

ACCUSES HUSBAND OF THREATENING HER

Etta Burris, through attorney C.
E. Baughn, filed action in the common pleas court late Monday afternoon, asking for divorce from Granville Burris, charging him with extreme cruelty and gross neglect of duty.

The plaintiff claims her husband
on June 21st drew his pocket knife
and threatened to kill her, and that he drove her away and beat her, calling her vile names and accused her
of associating with other men.

The pair were united in marriage
July 25, 1908.

FORMER BLOOMINGBURG POOLROOM SCRAP MAN GETS INTO TROUBLE

Zack Butler, formerly of Bloomingburg, but for several years a resident of Springfield, appealed to the Springfield police a day or two ago
for the arrest of Melvin Jackson, colored, proprietor of the Metropolitan
hotel on West Washington street, Springfield, charging him with assault and battery.

Butler told the police he went to the hotel intending to get a porter-house steak. He was with several other men. By mistake they entered the wrong door and claims to have walked into a room where gambling was going on. When they entered the room the lights were switched out. Butler claims that while he was in front of the hotel
Jackson came out and struck him.

CLOUD BURST NEAR XENIA YESTERDAY

During the rain which was general
over this part of Ohio Monday afternoon, a cloud burst occurred just north of Xenia near the Pumping station, and the basement of the pumping station was flooded, while nearly streams leaped from their banks within a few minutes after the deluge, and swept everything before them.

Fortunately the cloud burst did
not cover a large area and little damage resulted.

All over Fayette county the rain
fell for sometime, and meant tens of thousands of dollars to Fayette
farmers.

BELLAR—CAMPBELL
Many Washington friends will learn with much interest of the marriage of Miss Mary Campbell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Campbell of North North street and J. Howard Bellar, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Bellar, who are of 215 in Newport Ky. of whom we heard the sixth.

The bride has had classes at a millinery department in the J. W. Smith store, and has been very popular both in business relations and with a large circle of friends.

The bride-groom is a capable fellow, who holds a good position in Middletown, where the young couple expect to make their future home.

Mrs. Bellar is visiting her parents here, before joining her husband in Middletown.

PETRIFIED BODIES.

Their Organic Materials Are Replaced by Mineral Particles.

In answer to the query, "Do biologists or chemists know the process of petrification or the reason why a human body or a plant in some cases takes the course of petrification instead of decaying?" we would say:

The process is at first one of decay slowly and replacement particle by particle of the organic material by inorganic or mineral. Water holding siliceous minerals in saturated solution is necessary, the flesh or plant disintegrates, the carbon, oxygen, nitrogen, hydrogen compounds disintegrate and escape, and the minute portion is replaced by the mineral particle, the shape or form of the decaying body remaining intact.

Now, the carbon in the bodies does not change to siliceous minerals. It disappears in its combination with the other elements. No element changes into another; this would be mutation. Replacement is the word used here. Thus analyze a petrified man or plant—no organic matter can be found—only inorganic, and this weighs far more than did the animated body. The entire process of petrification is a mysterious work of nature.—New York American.

Virtues of the Nurse.
Sir William Osler in a lecture at Johns Hopkins training school named the seven virtues of the nurse: "Faith, without which no woman can be successful and her chief protection in the mechanism of life; tidiness, it being the primary duty of a woman to look well; tactfulness, which should be cultivated as a gift; sympathy, gentleness, the birthright of a nurse; cheerfulness and charity, the last and greatest of virtues."

A STARTLING GOWN OF LACE OVER FLESH COLORED SILK

The exquisite model illustrated here was designed for a French fashion leader who appeared in it at the races. A duplicate was said to have been ordered the next day by the wife of an American millionaire, with the idea of startling American society when she wears it for the first time at the New York horse show. The gown is of fine malines lace draped over flesh pink mousseline de sole. The skirt may best be described by saying it is a cutaway showing under flounces of the lace. One feature of the costume was the use of strands of amber and rhinestone beads for the collar and decoration of the front of the gown. The beads were caught in place by hand-some jeweled ornaments.

BOND ISSUE FOR NEW FIRE TRUCK COSTING $10,000

Modern Fire Fighter Will Soon Be Placed in Local Engine House For Better Fire Protection.

NORTH STREET PAVING ORDINANCE AGAIN READ

Circle Avenue Improvement Up Once
More—Water Company Sends Word
That Work on the Improvements
Will Soon Commence—Other Matters Receive Attention at Special Meeting of the City Council Last Night.

Considerable business of importance was transacted at the special session of the city council Monday
night, the most important part being the passing of an ordinance to
issue $10,000 in bonds for the purpose of purchasing a new motor fire
engine and other modern fire fighting equipment. The ordinance went
through with only one dissenting
vote, Durant voting against it and
making a short speech in which he stated that while he favored better
fire protection he thought the best
plan would be to let the citizens of Washington determine by vote
whether the bond issue should be made for the motor fire engine.

Other members favored proceeding
with the matter as started and the
ordinance was passed accordingly.
This action insures the early purchase of a modern fire fighter equal to that of any Ohio City, and which will
insure greater protection from fire
dangers.

Resolutions to transfer $115 from
the general fund to meet a note was
passed without a dissenting vote.

Owing to the expense of moving
certain hydrants being too heavy, the
proposal to change the hydrants was allowed to pass without further action.

Veall stated that the Water company had informed him that work
on the improvements demanded by
the city would start within a short
time. No further action was taken on the proposal to hold up payment
until the improvements were under way.

Mayor Smith's report for the month of July showed that he had
collected some $15 in licenses.

The Circle Avenue improvement
was next taken up. Service Director Mark stating that the work had been held up because the notices had not been served properly, and that if he
had secured bids and let the contract
the action would not have been legal.

Clerk Flynn then stated that he
had served the notices on the 14th
of July, the "same day notices were received." Further action on the Circle Avenue improvement will probably take place soon. Legislation on city and at the breaking out of the war, the three enlisted.

The ordinance for paving North
street from the old corporation line
to East street was then taken up and
placed upon its second reading.
Sheets voting against it.

Members Veall, Sheets and Chap-
man were appointed to locate a new
light on Western avenue, where it is claimed there is urgent need of a street light.

The assessing ordinance on North
North street for the improvements
now under way was passed.

An ordinance for a 15-inch sewer
on South Main street passed.

The Budget ordinance, fixing the
amount necessary for municipal purposes for the year 1914 was also passed, and remains to be passed on by
the Budget Commission.

Veall then urged the improvement
of South Main street, by the application of crushed stone. No action was taken on the matter.

Council then adjourned to meet
Monday night of next week.

His Point of View.

MOSQUITOES BY THE MILLIONS

Poisonous Insects Swoop Down Upon
The City Yesterday Evening And
Torture Citizens Throughout The
Night—Probably Driven From the
Stagnant Creek—How to Prevent
Troublesome Pests From Plying
Their Sharp Bills.

With the rain of Monday evening
a cloud of very large and active
mosquitoes swept down upon the city
from some unknown source, and tortured humanity with their poisonous
bites throughout the night, driving
people from their verandas and following them into the house for one
more great big juicy bite.

Many persons were forced to fight
the troublesome insects, as screens
apparently had little or no effect up-
on them, and the result was more than one pair of sleepy eyes Tuesday morning, and more than one
swollen face, where the poisonous insects had been at work.

It is believed that the mosquitoes
came from the creek, which had become stagnated and afforded an ideal
breeding place for the insects, and
that when the water raised in the
creek it drove them from their homes
and they spread out over the city
by the millions.

As it is known that mosquitoes
carry typhoid fever germs and as
everyone is anxious to prevent them
from sinking their poisonous "bills"
into their faces or arms, there is a general demand for a method that
will beat wet towels swung about in
the air.

Bulletin 253 issued by the Ohio
Experiment Station, gives the best
method of successfully combating
the pests and it is by burning pyre-
thrum, which is also known as Persian and Dalmatian Insect Powder.
This material is a powder ground
from the heads of the genus Pyre-
thrum.

One of the best ways to use the
powder is to first moisten it, then
mould it into small cones about as
large as a chocolate drop, then dry
in the oven. Fire these cones at the
apex and they will smoulder slowly,
stupefying the mosquitoes. Four or five of these cones will prevent the mosquitoes from causing further annoyance.

Breeding places should be given
a coat of kerosene, one ounce to each
fifteen square feet of surface.

A few drops of spirits of camphor
or pennyroyal will also assist in keeping the mosquitoes away at
night.

ACCUSES HUSBAND OF THREATENING HER

Etta Burris, through attorney C.
E. Baughn, filed action in the common pleas court late Monday afternoon, asking for divorce from Granville Burris, charging him with extreme cruelty and gross neglect of duty.

The plaintiff claims her husband
on June 21st drew his pocket knife
and threatened to kill her, and that
he drove her away and beat her, calling her vile names and accused her
of associating with other men.

The pair were united in marriage
July 25, 1908.

FORMER BLOOMINGBURG POOLROOM SCRAP MAN GETS INTO TROUBLE OCCURS LAST NIGHT

Zack Butler, formerly of Bloom-

dent of Springfield, appealed to the Springfield police a day or two ago
for the arrest of Melvin Jackson, colored, proprietor of the Metropolitan
hotel on West Washington street,
Springfield, charging him with assault and battery.

Butler told the police he went to the hotel intending to get a port-house steak. He was with several other men. By mistake they entered the wrong door and claims to have walked into a room where gambling was going on. When they entered the room the lights were
switched out. Butler claims that while he was in front of the hotel
Jackson came out and struck him.

CLOUD BURST NEAR XENIA YESTERDAY

During the rain which was general
over this part of Ohio Monday afternoon, a cloud burst occurred just
north of Xenia near the Pumping
station, and the basement of the
pumping station was flooded, while nearby streams leaped from their banks within a few minutes after the deluge, and swept everything before
them.

Fortunately the cloud burst did
not cover a large area and little damage resulted.

All over Fayette county the rain
fell for sometime, and meant tens of thousands of dollars to Fayette
farmers.

The process is at first one of decay slowly and replacement particle by particle of the organic material by inorganic or mineral. Water holding siliceous minerals in saturated solution is necessary, the flesh or plant disintegrates, the carbon, oxygen, nitrogen, hydrogen compounds disintegrate and escape, and the minute portion is replaced by the mineral particle, the shape or form of the decaying body remaining intact.

Now, the carbon in the bodies does not change to siliceous minerals. It disappears in its combination with the other elements. No element changes into another; this would be mutation. Replacement is the word used here. Thus analyze a petrified man or plant—no organic matter can be found—only inorganic, and this weighs far more than did the animated body. The entire process of petrification is a mysterious work of nature.—New York American.

Virtues of the Nurse.

The exquisite model illustrated here was designed for a French fashion leader who appeared in it at the races. A duplicate was said to have been ordered the next day by the wife of an American millionaire, with the idea of startling American society when she wears it for the first time at the New York horse show. The gown is of fine malines lace draped over flesh pink mousseline de sole. The skirt may best be described by saying it is a cutaway showing under flounces of the lace. One feature of the costume was the use of strands of amber and rhinestone beads for the collar and decoration of the front of the gown. The beads were caught in place by handsome jeweled ornaments.

The Public Domain Rules

The matter of opening up great sections of the public lands is not regarded with as much interest as it was some years ago.

Changes in the character of land now unoccupied made certain changes in the method adopted for throwing the lands open to settlers, imperative. Those changed methods, it seems, have served their day and must in turn give way to change. This time the change is back to the old method.

For the last year or more public lands in the Western States have been designated by the Secretary of the Interior as subject to entry under the so-called enlarged homestead act, or the 320-acre homestead act, only on petition of those who desire to avail themselves of the provisions of this law.

This procedure was an outgrowth of the desire of the Department to designate no lands which were not actually enterable under the law in question.

In order to accomplish this end the status of each tract had to be investigated to determine whether it was already entered, was a school section, was involved in a State section, or for any other reason had been taken out of the class of "unappropriated" public lands which alone are enterable under this act.

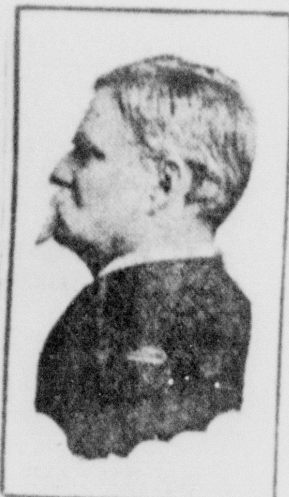

This search meant that with the meager force available to the Department only slow progress could be made in the designation of lands for entry under this law.

Soon after the passage of the act lands had been designated for entry under it in a body, without regard to their status, the only question determined by the Department prior to designation being that the lands were surveyed, unreserved, and nonirrigable.

Under this mode of procedure designations can be made with comparative rapidity, the availability of the lands for entry being determined by the applicant when he visits the local land office to file upon his claim. After the abandonment to this early procedure the law was extended to apply to North Dakota. The rule of designation by petition has been followed in that State and the resulting delays have proved embarrassing both to the Department and to the citizens of North Dakota as well as to those of other Western States.

At the suggestion of Senator Gronna Secretary Lane has recently decided to revert to the earlier practice and designate the lands in large bodies after it is determined that they are nonirrigable, as required by law. He has accordingly issued appropriate instructions to the Geological Survey, which is charged under the Department with the preparation of the lists of lands enterable under this law.

This change will have the effect of greatly expediting the designation of lands under this law.

Reform by Reason,
Not by Emotion

By HENRY WATTERSON, Editor and Publisher

WE are told, and most of us believe, that those are best governed who are least governed. Yet we have one big congress in the nation's capital and forty-eight little congresses in the several state capitals. CONSTANTLY IN SESSION TO MAKE AND UNMAKE LAWS to vex the people and confuse the courts. Inevitably respect for law is lowered, and here, as elsewhere, familiarity breeds contempt.

Seeing the evils of too much legislation, we call for more. Through chance majorities we would regulate the tastes, morals and habits of the people by act of assembly. Perennially reproaching congress, we would nevertheless augment the power of congress. We are CREATING A SYSTEM OF CENTRALIZED BUREAUCRACY, and, supplementing the civil service with multifarious commissions, we have a STANDING ARMY OF OFFICIALS.

YET WE DISDAIN ALIKE EXPERIENCE AND FORECAST. WE ARE THREATENED WITH GOVERNMENT BY HYSTERIA, DISPLAYING ITS EXCESS ON THE ONE HAND BY THE VAINGLORIOUS ASSERTION OF OUR GRANDEUR AND PUISSANCE, ON THE OTHER HAND EXPRESSING ITS HUMANITY THROUGH THE EXPLOITATION OF VISIONARY SCHEMES OF IMPOSSIBLE RELIEF.

Do I overpaint the picture? Is it but the mocking effigy of an old man's pessimism? Let us not be too sure of ourselves. If we preserve that which Washington and Franklin and Jefferson contemplated; that which Jones and Perry, Harrison and Shelby fought for; that which each side in the war of sections declares it aimed at—INTELLIGENT FREEDOM—we shall have done well.

We have not been so well governed that we may not be BETTER GOVERNED. But I would summon reform through REASON, NOT EMOTION. I would have regeneration come by GROWTH, NOT BY SPASM.

Poetry For Today

THE CHERUBIM.

Two angels stood at Eden's gate
And neither uttered word;
In the eyes of one, indignant hate
Flamed like the flame of his sword
The other's brand burned also red
With the fire that, avenging sears,
And he waved the warning thing of dread,
But his eyes were soft with tears.

They twain had watched the Fall's disgrace,
But only one had seen
The mortal pain in the woman's face
Where never pain had been!
Had marked the clasp of the woman's hand
On his who, Eden gone,
Seemed through her trembling touch
newmanned,
As he drew her gently on.

Two angels turned from Eden's gate
For Man had wandered far;
The one passed quickly, joy elated,
From star to beckoning star;
But the other angel sighed, as long
The heavenly way he trod,
And came at last to the awful throne
And fell at the feet of God.

Then spake God's voice: "What earthly born grief
Dim radiance such as thine?"
The angel sighed: "I beg relief
For woes that are not mine!
I plead for those that exiled live;
If grace be of Thy plan,
Have mercy!—ah, have mercy! Give Some comfort, Lord, to Man!"

The fearful angel waited, came Long silence, then the Voice:
"Love cannot take from wrong its blame;
Man's woes are of Man's choice;
Yet do thou bear—thy pity's price—
To them that outcast grope.
This last, best gift of Paradise—
This key whose name is Hope!"

WILMINGTONIAN IS GIVEN REST HERE

Chas. Volkert, white, giving Wilmington as his residence, dropped off the C. H. & D. Saturday evening with a half pint of whiskey outside and enough inside to make him see double and walk with crossed feet. He was trying to catch the B. & O. train for Wilmington but it passed through this city when the C. H. & D. arrived.

Volkert was picked up by the police and landed in the cooler, where he remained until Sunday when he was sent on his way. When arrested he had ten cents and a half pint of whiskey in his pockets.

INTERESTING
BITS OF NEWS

(By John E. M. Kerr.)

That the $1,000,000 worth of Empire voting machines failed to meet the requirements of the Chicago primary elections was admitted before the legislative inquiry committee by Frank Kelper, lobbyist and patent attorney employed by the Empire Voting Machine Company.

Debts amounting to over $9,000,000 francs are included in the liabilities of De Perdussin, the aeroplane inventor who was arrested last week for forgery. Against these, his assets, which are somewhat vague, are estimated at 20,000,000 francs.

A vessel, or part of a vessel, has been sighted off the Gravel Banks, and the discoverers think they have found the remains of the lost Titanic. The fact that, after more than a year, the bulk stands vertically in the waves, protruding eight feet or more above the surface, would indicate that a submerged ledge of rock had prevented the wreck from going to the bottom of the sea. If such a ledge exists, evidence in fact was reported as long ago as 1912, then it is probable that the "foundering" was caused by this hidden obstruction ripping open her hull. Should these theories prove to be facts, Capt. Smith, who was in command and perished when his ship went down, would be absolved of the charge of lack of vigilance and damage suits against the International Mercantile Marine, based on the disaster, would fall, lawyers say.

President Erb, of the Minneapolis and St. Louis railroad describes what the automobile has done for the railroads and for the farmer says "I am sure I underestimate when I say that in the past 12 years the auto has added $2,000,000,000 to the value of farm lands. Facilities for getting freight to the railroads have also enormously increased, for good roads have followed the automobile. Nothing has done more to increase agricultural property and stimulate transportation."

Advertising as a fine art will be taught in the department of journalism of the University of Wisconsin next season. The new course will undertake to familiarize candidates with all phases of newspaper advertising. Prof. R. Starr Butler, a practical advertising man and author of "Live Copy on Ad. Writing," will teach the course.

To the department of agriculture of Ontario, Canada, was awarded the President's Cup at the close of last week's apple show for the best display at the International Apple Shippers' Association, held in Cleveland. An advertising campaign to educate people to eat more apples is to be taken up.

Operating his big biplane under a heavy fire as he circled above the town and bay at Guaymas, Massena, French aviator, dropped several bombs around the Mexican gunboat "Tampico" lying in the harbor. One truck within a few feet of the ship which gave rise to the report that the boat had been sunk. The fact that the aviator operated under fire and escaped unharmed would seem to emphasize that the airship is now an instrument of war.

TRYING TO RAISE
38-TON GIRDER

The largest derrick on the Pennsylvania railroad, with a capacity of 19 tons, is now in use at Lancaster replacing a huge steel girder weighing 38 tons, which overturned a derrick a few days ago and slipped into the Hocking river.

When the big piece of steel, which is 92 feet long and 8 feet wide overturned the derrick it nearly crushed the lives out of fifteen men, but in some miraculous manner all escaped, some with slight injuries, others without a scratch. Seven men were in a ditch and the girder fell crosswise over the ditch. Several were carried into the river on the big derrick.

Both derrick and girder will be lifted from the river.

Children of Big Cities Are Taught Graphically By Model How to Avoid Street Car Accidents.

This picture is worth your attention because it illustrates what is being done in some of the big cities of the country to minimize street car accidents and fatalities to children. It was taken at the American League of Safety, which was recently started in New York city, and shows the class of children gathered around a model street car. Little ones from the poorer sections are taken to the museum and shown how to avoid accidents. They see exactly how to get on and off a car without standing the risk of being hurt. A number of wealthy philanthropists are interested in the league, including Andrew Carnegie. In addition, the children are taught what games to play on the streets and in general how to conduct themselves outdoors.

Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surface of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. ## SOMETHING ON ALL THE TIME

TESTIMONY SENSATIONAL

Sulzer's Inquisitor Attacks Character of Frawley's Chief Investigator.
Albany, N. Y., Aug. 12.—When Special Commissioner John A. Hennessy brought out in his investigation of Tammany heads of state departments that Matthew J. Horgan, the chief investigator of the Frawley legislative investigating committee, had been convicted six times for disorderly conduct and false certifications, he seemed to think he had dealt the work of the Frawley committee a blow which will cause the people of the state to place little credence in its report.

Commissioner Hennessy followed this disclosure with evidence that James J. Lannon, who is now chief examiner under John H. Delaney, state commissioner of efficiency and economy at a salary of $4,500, had done little or no work as confidential clerk to Justice State Excise Commissioner Robert of Erie at a salary of $1,500, but had really acted as confidential agent for Tammany Leader William J. Stratford of Buffalo in his contracting business. The commissioner declared that he would refer the whole question, with the testimony, to the district attorney of Erie county.

The disclosures regarding the past record of Horgan, who besides being the chief investigator of the Frawley committee is also deputy state commissioner of efficiency and economy at a salary of $5,000, was a surprise.

GOVERNOR EXONORATED

Washington, Aug. 12.—A C. Marshall of Dayton, who wrote a letter which Martin M. Mulhall read to the senate lobby committee, saying Governor Cox, when a member of congress, had been delaying the selection of a federal building site in Dayton for personal reasons, sent a letter to the committee disclaiming any reflections on Cox.

speculation on margin in Wall street, some of them being carried in the name of Frederick L. Colwell, a personal friend, as a dummy for Sulzer. "That on Jan. 1, when he was a member of the house of representatives, Mr. Sulzer owed Fuller & Harris $48,599.75, a debt toward which he paid $21,000 in cash and checks soon after his election, and the final payment of which was made by Lieutenant Commander Louis M. Josephthal of the governor's staff. "That undoubtedly all of the checks with which Frederick L. Colwell bought 200 shares of Big Four stock from Boyer, Griswold & Company on Oct. 16, 1912, were campaign contributions. "That Mr. Sulzer, between the day of his nomination and the day he became governor, used for the purchase or protection of stocks $43,550 in currency."

Following the reading of the report, Representative Aaron G. Levy of New York city, majority leader, offered a resolution for the impeachment of Governor Sulzer.

MAYOR APPROVES

Fairmont, W. Mayor Cole, however, thought differently, and discharged the young women a short time later, saying their costumes were "becoming and very artistic."
